

Bohn Choal Preah Vorsa

The honorable monks and the committee of Wat Buddhikaram of Utah would like to cordially invite you, your family, and the devotees to join us to celebrate a traditional Buddhist holiday Bohn Choal Preah Vorsa (Buddhist Lent). This is a special time for Buddhist monks to commit to one place of study and strictly practice Buddhist principles for 3 months. This takes place from mid-July to mid-October. This also helps with the mental virtue and development of religious activities.
